Community

Greenwood, SC, is a beautiful community of 30,000 located in northwestern South Carolina and surrounded by rolling hills and gorgeous lakes, with more than 200 miles of lake shoreline. Recreational activities abound, including golf, tennis, watersports, hunting, cultural performances and more. Greenwood has been recognized as one of the Top 50 “Best Towns in America.”* Greenwood also hosts the South Carolina Festival of Flowers, named one of Southeast Tourism Society’s Top 20 Events. Greenwood is within an hours drive to several metropolitan cities, and within a few hours of the mountains and Atlantic beaches. Greenwood has an excellent public and private educational system, which includes a technical college and a university. Greenwood is a place where safe and easy family living comes first. *Book by Hugh Bayless (Houghton Mifflin Co., 1983).

Opportunity

Self Regional Healthcare is expanding its radiation oncology services with the completion of a new Cancer Center in the summer of 2011. Currently, there is one radiation oncologist with a need for a second based on increasing volume. Self Regional Cancer Center serves a 7 county region with a population of 250,000 & is the only full service cancer center in the region. This opportunity is for full time employment by Self Regional Healthcare. There are two physicists and a dosimetrist along with the full compliment of technology including two linear accelerators a CT simulator and a HDR unit. We are seeking a BC/BE radiation oncologist.

Hospital

Self Regional Medical Center is a 421-bed regional referral center providing a wide range of comprehensive inpatient and outpatient services. Along with being home to a 27 resident family practice program, the hospital offers a full array of medical and surgical services, including cardiovascular surgery, vascular surgery, neurosurgery, orthopedics and bariatric surgery. Self Regional is recognized with five-star ratings from HealthGrades® in 2008-09 for overall orthopedic services, joint replacement and total knee replacement. The hospital received the Orthopedic Surgery Excellence Award™ and is ranked among the top 10 percent in the nation for overall services. Self is top-ranked in South Carolina and in the top 5 percent nationally for neurosurgery, earning the state's Spine Surgery Excellence Award™. The hospital has five-star ratings in spine surgery, and back and neck surgery (both fusion and non-fusion). Self Regional was named one of the world's top 20 "Great Workplaces" by the Gallup organization for three years in a row starting in 2008. The medical staff is comprised of over 280 physicians representing 40+ specialties and subspecialties. A new 224-bed patient tower opened in August 2006 which includes a floor for inpatient oncology. The new $24 million Cancer Center will be a state of the art facility encompassing medical and radiation oncology as well as a boutique for patients and a healing garden. The Cancer Center currently participates in clinical trials and has a dedicated Patient Navigator.
